Offices In Job Find Increase

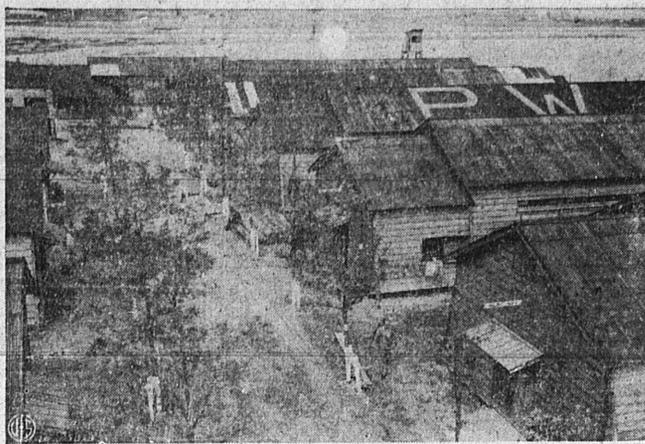

More than 287 Torrance Area workers found jobs through the facilities of the Torrance U.S.E.S., during the month of October, K. E. Bradley, manager, announced yesterday.

This is an increase of 105 or 58 percent over September's score of 182 Bradley said, and indicates that displaced war workers and returning veterans are bringing their "job shopping" to a close and accepting available peacetime jobs.

Manufacturing industries attracted the greatest number of work applicants last month, with 190 new employees being added to payrolls. Other industries and new employees included: Wholesale and Retail Trade, 28; Service Workers, 18; Public Utilities 18 and Financial, 16.

For the first time since 1941, aircraft and aircraft parts dropped to fifth place among manufacturing and industries requiring new employees, Bradley said.

P. W. Quarters for Japanese

Here is a general view of Omori prison camp near Tokyo where Jap prisoners of war are held in America. The Japs get food and medical treatment at this camp which was originally an insular area held 400 Allied prisoners of war. The Japs confined Americans in germ-infested, filthy, makeshift camps.

Vets Advised To Reenlist Early To Avoid Disappointment

Lt. H. A. Glover, San Pedro recruiting officer, today stressed the fact that due to the change in current regulations, veterans must reenlist within 20 days after date of discharge in order to retain rank held at time of discharge and to be eligible for the three months furlough.

The regulation that allows up to 90 days after date of discharge to receive enlistment bonus of $50 per year for each year of active service since last enlistment has not been changed.

Lt. Glover stated that a large number of veterans have contacted his office just a few days too late to receive the benefits offered by the government and he is issuing this statement in the hope that veterans in the future will be warned of this time element involved and not be disappointed upon their application for reenlistment.

"It is better to inquire now, than to be sorry later," Lt. Glover said.

Information may be had by calling the Recruiting Office in Room 3 of the San Pedro Postoffice building. Telephone: Terminal 3-2986.

'Gifts For Those Who Gave' Drive Conducted Here

No wounded or sick veteran in California army and navy hospitals will be forgotten this Christmas, said Commander James Brodie of Bert S. Crossland post, the American Legion, in announcing the local post's participation in the Legion's "Gifts for Yanks Who Gave" campaign next week.

Every one of the thousand-odd American Legion posts in California (as well as every post in the entire country) will serve as a depository for gifts for our hospitalized veterans, said Brodie. On Christmas Day, each gift collected from the public will be presented personally by a Legionnaire to a hospitalized service man or woman.

"Make a wounded veteran happy this Christmas," is the campaign slogan. Names and addresses of gift-donors should be enclosed in the package. "And make your gift a practical one," adds Major Newcomb. "You may be sure it will be appreciated, and gratefully remembered."

Townsend Club No. 1 By LOTTIE WADE

The Thanksgiving party was held Nov. 23 with pumpkin pie donated by the women of the club and ice cream generously donated by Mr. and Mrs. Dewhurst of San Pedro. There were games and dancing which is always a feature of the evenings. A nice crowd was present and every one enjoyed everything to the fullest extent.
